

'Good Hygiene Practices in insect production'

Workshop organised by the International Platform of Insects for Food and Feed (IPIFF) and the Danish Insect Network (DIN)

27 May 2019, 1.00 pm - 6.30 pm

Introduction and welcome - 13.00 - 13:30

- Welcoming words by Mr Antoine Hubert
IPIFF President
- Welcoming words by Mr Jacob Mogensen
DIN Secretariat leader

Session 1

Keynote speeches - 13:30 - 15:15

Moderator: Jacob Mogensen (DIN Secretariat leader)

Insects for food and feed - potentials for the bio economy in Denmark

Mr Thor Gunnar Kofoed

Vice President of the Danish Agriculture & Food Council Organisation

- Importance of EU regulatory standards and Guides of Good Hygiene Practices in food and feed operations: the Danish food control authorities' perspective
Mr Stig Møllgaard
Chief Adviser, Danish Veterinary and Food Administration
- Safety risks associated with the production of insects as food and feed: the responsibility of insect producers
Ms Dorte Lau Baggesen
Head of Division, Food Microbiology at the Danish National Food Institute and Member of the EFSA Working Group on insects (EFSA' opinion from October 2015)
- Q&A session with the audience

15:15 - 15:40 Coffee break

Session 2

IPIFF Guide on Good Hygiene Practices: guidance for insect producers to implement EU food and feed safety requirements 'on the ground' - 15:40 - 18:30

Moderator: Mr Antoine Hubert (IPIFF President)

- Introduction to the IPIFF Guide on Good Hygiene Practices for the insect sector
Mr Lars-Henrik Lau Heckmann
IPIFF Executive Committee Member in charge of research activities
- Next steps: assessment of the IPIFF Guide by EU Member States' authorities and future update of the IPIFF Guide
Mr Christophe Derrien
IPIFF Secretary General
- Q&A session with the audience

Panel debate: 'helping the insect sector to manage safety, risks collectively with authorities and food & feed chain partners.'

- Common understanding of EU regulatory and food & feed safety standards by insect producers: providing tools helping the implementation of risk-based systems
Mr Jakub Urbanski
Former Chair of the IPIFF Task Force on 'Good Hygiene Principles'
- Encouraging interaction & transmission of information between insect producers and food/feed chain partners: building trust all along the supply chain
Mr Finn Vestergaard Povlsen
Quality Manager at DLG, Member of the FEFAC Feed Safety Management Committee
- Assisting operators in complying with EU regulatory obligations & encouraging voluntary commitments: building trust towards consumers
Mr Marijn Lanting
Chair of the IPIFF Working Group on 'food safety & consumers' information'
- Encouraging cooperation between insect producers and competent authorities: ensuring a mutual understanding of operators' obligations.
Mr Stig Møllergaard
Chief Adviser, Danish Veterinary and Food Administration
- Discussion with the audience
- Conclusions by the IPIFF President